STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF
THE PERMANENT FUND OF THE BOSTON YOUNG
MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION.

STATEMENT BY THE TRUSTEES OF THE PERMANENT FUND OF THE BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION.

The work and influence of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union have constantly increased from year to year until it has assumed large proportions, as again plainly shown at its annual meeting (forty-ninth year) held Wednesday evening, April 11, 1900, when the very satisfactory and gratifying reports of the several sub-committees in charge of the active work of the Union during the past year were presented.

It has for many years been a source of much pleasure and satisfaction to the Trustees, to the President, and to his associates of the Board of Government, to note the constantly increasing membership of the Union, now reaching — April 1, 1900 — 5,554.

The amount in the hands of the Treasurer of the "Permanent Fund" is as follows: —

Boston & Providence R.R. Co. Four Per Cent.
Bonds, . . . . .	$20,000.00

During the past year the Trustees have received the following legacies : —

Legacy under the will of Miss Elizabeth B. Fisher, . . . . .	$10,391.00
Legacy under the will of Ezra Forristall, Jr., . . . . .	100.00
Legacy under the will of Mrs. Jane H. Kilburn (additional), . . . . .	225.00
Legacy under the will of Rev. Robert C. Waterston, . . . . .	2,000.00
Legacy under the will of David Nevins, . . . . .	4,498.46

As we look back upon the history of the Union in the past, and reflect upon its position and work at the present time, we more than ever realize its great advantages, not only to the young people of to-day, but also to the large numbers to whom in future years Boston will be a home by birth or adoption.

We are confident that the friends of the Union will join with the Trustees in their earnest wish that the "Permanent Fund," of which we have a beginning, shall be largely increased through the donations and legacies of friends, thus affording an income which shall be of practical advantage in helping successfully to carry forward the constantly increasing and important work of the Union.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Finance. As for many years past, it is a pleasant duty of your Finance Committee to prepare and present their report for the Union year just closed.

Your Committee feel grateful to the many friends who have kindly favored the Union with their donations of money in aid of its "General Purposes," and are also grateful for the universally kind spirit which has accompanied their gifts.

Upon the condition of the financial affairs of a society, such as this Christian Union, rests largely the degree of success which will follow the labors of those who may be actively engaged in its interests.

We have aimed to carefully attend to the financial interests of the Union; and we are happy to be able to state that, as in former years, all demands of every kind against the Union during the past twelve months have been promptly paid.

In this connection we are very happy to state that the membership of the Union was never so large in its history of nearly one-half a century (organized 1851) as at the present time, the full membership April 1, 1900, being 5,554.

Many ladies and gentlemen have called in person, or forwarded amounts, by mail or otherwise, to William H. Baldwin (Chairman of the Finance Committee) at his office in the Union Building, 48 Boylston Street.

Should any of the friends of the Union be prompted, at any time, unsolicited, to enclose donations for the “General Purposes” of the Union, we assure all such ladies and gentlemen that their kindness will be deeply appreciated.

All sums received will be entered in the “Book of Donors,” and receipts sent by mail or given at the time.

The Committee present the following financial statement made by the Treasurer, Wm. L. Richardson.

WM. H. BALDWIN, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Subcommittee of the Board in charge of this department realizes the importance of the work intrusted to it, and in particular that of the evening classes. Of no less need is the provision necessary for the pleasure of members, and we feel that our institution offers many attractions in this particular.

Lectures. That the interest in the courses of lectures is maintained is proved by the large attendance. The lists of speakers and subjects show that we are keeping abreast of the times with thoroughly live topics.

Classes. We take pride in our evening school, composed of twenty-seven classes. This important department of our work makes especial provision for any who lack other opportunities for instruction, and has proved of valuable assistance in the education of many. The rooms devoted to this purpose are used to their full extent.

Entertainments. Members of the Union find Wednesday evenings specially attractive. On that evening our regular weekly entertainment is given. Once a month an amateur performance is presented, sometimes by members. Frequently an evening is devoted to those musically inclined, with selections from the best composers, and accompanied by good readings. Stereopticon entertainments are also offered.

The large audiences which attend these performances testify their appreciation of the efforts made for their pleasure. We draw largely on volunteer talent for the entertainments, and their excellence proves the wide-spread interest taken in the Union. We cannot thank these friends too cordially for their invaluable services.

“PRACTICAL TALKS.”

“Practical Talks,”     The twenty-eighth course of 1873=1900.             Practical Talks was given in

The Union Hall before audiences exceeding the seating capacity. We always aim to select timely topics, which we may instance in the selection of the Boer-Briton War, which was in its early stages when the lecture on the subject was announced.

The stereopticon was used in all lectures, and the views shown brought each topic vividly before the auditors. The instructive matter given in these talks, and the prominence of many speakers, give a value to them of which the young men and their friends are quick to take advantage.

Saturday Evenings.

1. Jan. 6. William Hinton White, a native of Australia. Subject, “The South Sea Islands; or, Under the Southern Cross.” New lecture. Fully illustrated by the stereopticon.
2. Jan. 13. Rev. J. J. Lewis, of Chicago, Ill. Subject, “Lake Champlain and the Green Mountain State.” Illustrated by the stereopticon. Over 100 views.
3. Jan. 20. Arthur K. Peck, of Boston. Subject, “Cycling in the World’s Wonderland, Yellowstone Park.” Fully illustrated by 100 colored stereopticon views.
4. Jan. 27. Albert Armstrong, of Boston. Subject, “Picture-play of J. M. Barrie’s popular ‘The Little Minister.’” Over 160 stereopticon pictures from life.

5. Feb. 3. Rev. William S. Key, formerly of old Boston, England. A lecture (by request), "Africa of To-day." 200 stereopticon views, fully illustrating the scene of the struggle between the Boer Republic and the English Empire. These views were personally taken, and lecture prepared by a member of the United States Survey Department.
6. Feb. 10. Thomas Edward Potterton, of West Somerville, Mass. Subject, "Old Boston; or, The Hub in History." Illustrated by 115 stereopticon views.

Teachers and Methods.

The direct educational work of the Christian Union centres in its evening classes, and every effort is made to improve the quality and promote the efficacy of the instruction. The best available teachers are secured, the most approved text-books and methods employed, and a faithful attempt made to merit the attendance and interest of the pupils.

Attendance. The work seems to show a steady increase in actual value and effectiveness as well as in public patronage and appreciation. The records of the past season show a considerably larger attendance than ever before and a continued interest on the part of both teachers and pupils.

The branches taught during the past season were the same as those of the previous year, but some change in instructors may be briefly noted. The Union mourns the loss of its excellent teacher of Parliamentary Law, Mr. Lewis C. Flanagan, who died on the 21st of last February.

For seven successive seasons, ending with that of 1898-99, he conducted the "Union Legislative Assembly" with ability and success, establishing an enduring reputation by his wisdom and tact as a teacher and his high character as a man.

Mr. Joseph S. Parsons is also retired from our connection, after a faithful service of seventeen years as teacher of Book-keeping. The Union has had no teacher more entirely devoted to its interests than Mr. Parsons, and many pupils can testify to his ability and worth. Long may he live to receive their appreciation and our own!

Mr. Parsons's place was filled by Mr. H. M. Duffill, of the Bryant & Stratton Commercial School, who has conducted his two large classes in Book-keeping with an ability, an interest, and a success highly gratifying to both pupils and management.

Mr. Sears Gallagher, having been obliged by the increasing demands of his profession to resign his class in Free-hand Drawing, was succeeded by Mr.

J. A. Frizzell, long popular with us as teacher of Mechanical Drawing.

The other Free-hand Class was most ably conducted by Mr. W. L. Skinner, and Mr. V. L. George continued his valuable service as a teacher of Decoration and Design.

All of the Art Classes have been popular, the original applications for membership exceeding the room limit.

Law. Mr. J. H. Harwood, who last year inaugurated our Law Class, was obliged to decline a second engagement; but we were fortunate in securing as his successor Mr. Arthur L. Spring, who has given in Eaton Hall a course of Law Lectures of great interest and value, before a large and attentive class.

Elocution. The Elocution Class under Prof. Bickford had its usual large membership, and gave evidence of its popular teacher's ability in its Annual Exhibition in The Union Hall on the evening of March 28.

English Literature. The Class in English Literature again headed the list in respect to membership, and closed a most interesting course by a testimonial entertainment complimentary to its scholarly instructor, Prof. Cecil Harper, who presented on that occasion the play "Cyrano de Bergerac."

Language Classes. The Language Classes (excepting Mr. Sturgis's Spanish and Mr. Pennypacker's Latin) have continued in charge of the Berlitz School, which has furnished us with native teachers of superior character and ability. These classes were never more popular, and in some of them supplementary courses are being given.

Business Studies.

There seem to have been no changes in other classes requiring comment. Arithmetic and Grammar, Penmanship, Shorthand, and Electricity have continued under the same excellent instructors as last year, and with similar satisfactory results.

Without exception our teachers have rendered faithful and efficient service, meriting official acknowledgment and public appreciation.

Without such interest in the work our educational effort would be fruitless; but, having it, we look confidently forward to a future of increasing usefulness.

THE UNION DEBATING CLUB.

The Union Debating Club

was organized early in the season as a successor to the Union Legislative Assembly. Mr. Albert F. Flint was its President for the first half of the term, and Mr. Sherwin L. Cook for the second.

The club has been an important feature in our educational work. Much interest has been shown in its debates, and many practical and popular questions have been discussed.

On the evening of March 16 a Joint Debate was held in The Union Hall, on the question of "Partisanship in City Politics." The Union Debating Club argued in favor of Partisanship, and the Boston Y. M. C. A. Congress advocated Independent Action.

The Congress won the debate. The disputants were as follows:—

Affirmative.

U. D. Club.

Joseph F. Murphy.
Lyle S. Chesbro.
John F. Ransom.

Negative.

B. Y. M. C. A. Congress.

Jacob S. Gaines.
David H. Winslow.
Charles T. Bunker.

Hon. Charles H. Innes presided; and the judges were Hon. William M. Olin, Hon. Samuel B. Capen, and Henry Sherwin, Esq.

On the evening of March 27 the club gave its annual dinner at the United States Hotel, and was addressed by Lieutenant Governor Bates and other distinguished guests.

Stenographic Club.

The Union Stenographic Club is a new organization, which promises to be popular and useful. Mr. Wilfred L. White is its founder and President, and its success is largely owing to his intelligent and persistent effort. The club offers opportunities for shorthand practice to graduates from the regular class in Stenography, and to any other Union members having a speed of fifty words per minute.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Entertainments. The season of entertainments begins the first of November, and is continued to the last of May.

Once a week during this period an entertainment of some nature is given. It has usually taken place on Wednesday evenings in The Union Hall, and, excepting the amateur dramatic performances, has been free to members and their lady friends.

On presenting membership cards at the office, each member is allowed two tickets for each entertainment.

For the amateur performances, which require expenditures for costumes, properties, etc., a moderate charge of admission is made.

Members are allowed two tickets for twenty-five cents, and extra tickets at twenty five cents each.

The public is also privileged to buy tickets at twenty-five cents each.

On each Wednesday the Union Bulletin was issued, containing the evening programme and announcements of every kind pertaining to the work of the Union.

Special issues of the Bulletin were also made for "Practical Talks," and frequently for Sunday evening services.

FORTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL RECEPTION.

Public Anniversary and Reception, 48th Year.

The Annual Reception was given Wednesday, May 31, taking place in the midst of "Anniversary Week," and was a successful closing to our winter activities. We were favored by the presence of many notable guests, who with our respected President received in the Directors' Room, decorated appropriately with flowers and bunting for the occasion.

The Reception.

The receiving party was made up of Secretary of the Navy John D. Long, Governor Roger Wolcott, and President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard College.

The Members of the Board joined with a large special Reception Committee of young men to make all visitors welcome.

There were no speeches, but sociability and music were in order in all parts of the great building.

The Music.

In The Union Hall the "Tufts College Glee, Mandolin, and Guitar Club" charmed many listeners, while those in the Library were entertained by the "Beacon Ladies' Orchestra," and in the Gymnasium The Union Orchestra played lively strains, and the gymnasium members performed feats of strength and agility illustrating the value of that department.

Samples of the work of the Art Class were exhibited in Class Room 3, and these practical results of the season's labors attracted much commendation.

The President, as in previous years, received from prominent men and women in all walks of life numerous letters expressing regrets, and also deep interest in our welfare.

The rooms were made most attractive by the green of many potted plants, which, together with cut flowers, were generously donated by Messrs. Galvin Bros.

This reception, which marked the close of our season, was thoroughly enjoyed by all our guests, who dispersed at a late hour, after an evening of sociability and good cheer.

History and Work. The history of the work of the Library for the past year, if given in detail, would fill many pages. The new books added and prepared with care for circulation, the constant replacing of books upon the shelves where they belong when not in use, the numerous demands for the popular and prominent books of the day, the inquiries of interested readers seeking information, and countless other daily duties and opportunities, all together make up the story of a busy and interesting year.

The plan of administration has been practically the same as in former years.

The Library has, during the past year, entertained within its bright and attractive reading-room thousands of young men for the purposes of study, thoughtful reading, or recreation.

Educational Force. Successful from the beginning (1851), it has always had a patronage commensurate with its growth and facilities; and the Committee are happy to note its activity, its widening sphere of usefulness, and educational force.

Free Access to Shelves. Unrestricted access to the shelves has from the first been one of the important rules of the Library, and every member of the Union is welcome to personally select from the shelves books for reading in the rooms or for home use, the latter in all cases to be registered at the desk of the librarian.

Reference Books. The reference collection, consisting of dictionaries, encyclopædias, etc., has been in steady demand, and has been appreciated and utilized by large numbers seeking information from this source.

No statistics have been kept of those who have visited the Reading-room to consult books or periodicals, but the attendance has been unusually large.

The room is open every day (Sundays and holidays included) from 9 A.M. to 10 P. M.

Quality of Literature. In the selection of books great care is taken by the Committee as to the quality of literature added, to keep the standard of reading high, to encourage a larger number of members to read good, healthful, and useful books, and to inspire in every young man who comes in contact with the Library a higher ideal of life, which will lead to practical results.

Magazines for Home Reading. Five popular magazines — Century, Harper's, New England, Outing, and Scribner's — are prepared every month for home reading, each member being allowed one of these magazines in addition to one volume at a time from the Library.

The circulation of the above for the year was as follows: Century, 409; Harper's, 387; Scribner's, 403; Outing, 172; New England Magazine, 105,—making a total circulation of 1,476.

The annual examination was made in the summer of 1899, without closing the Library, the card catalogue continued, manuscript lists of new books posted frequently, printed lists of new additions to the Library issued as supplements to The Union Bulletin, and all applications for books not in the Library have received careful attention; and books thus recommended, if deemed suitable by the Committee, have been purchased and placed on the shelves.

The principal collections in the Library are located as follows:—

COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.

COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.

Committee on Rooms.

The duties of this Committee embrace the general care of the entire building and the particular supervision of all the rooms used by the Union and the making of all general repairs.

The repairs in so large a building as the Union are numerous and extensive.

During the past year a gallery has been added in the Gymnasium, also a new hand-ball court, both of which are greatly appreciated by the members of the Repairs. Gymnasium. Three new floors of oak were laid in the rooms adjoining the parlor. These rooms are used for games, and are open from 7.30 to 9.45 each evening during the week, except Sunday. They are also used by the Secretary of the Country Week during the day.

Two scenes have been painted for The Union Hall, and the heating apparatus has been attended to. These, with minor repairs, cover the work for the past year.

Personnel
of the Rooms. Herbert C. Bronsdon has continued as Curator, Richard Ray, Jr., Librarian, James H. Dalton, Book-keeper, Henry C. Herman, Janitor. David T. Harding, Carpenter, attending to the general repairs about the building, and Stephen N. Wigglesworth as Stage Director when The Union Hall has been in use. Others have been employed as occasion required.

The Committee is happy to report that these gentlemen have shown the same industry and devotion to the interests of the Union which have characterized their work in past years. Their labors are often difficult and confining, and often draw largely upon their strength and patience; and it is due them again to commend them for the faithfulness with which they have discharged their duties.

Reception Committee.

The Reception Committee is in attendance evenings to receive and introduce strangers, to give information, and contribute, as far as possible, to the enjoyment of those present. The following are members of the Committee: Herbert C. Bronsdon, Chairman, Benjamin Franklin, William P. Cheney, H. Thaxter Underwood, Frank Crawford, Arthur V. Howland.

Great credit is due to these gentlemen for their efforts to promote sociability among the members and to make the rooms homelike.

The Union Hall, on occasions of meetings and entertainments of the society, has been intrusted to the following corps of ushers, who have discharged their duties with energy and fidelity.

Ushers. Howard L. Coburn, Frank W. Bryant, E. Everett Arnold, Robert M. Bowen, Arthur H. McKenny, Robert M. Clarke, Frank Crawford, Walter B. Haines, Robert K. Johnson, Harry I. Sadler, Arthur V. Howland.

The attractions offered by the rooms have been well appreciated by the members, and the numbers who have frequented the rooms evenings have increased during the year. It is hoped that the use of the rooms may be still more marked during the coming year.

Chess. During the year the Chess Organization of last year was succeeded by the B. Y. M. C. U. Chess Club. At the annual meeting of the club in October the following officers were elected:—

Henry Pennypacker, President of the Chess Club; Joseph C. Cook, Secretary; Elbridge K. Newhall, Treasurer; and H. H. Cook, H. G. Daniel, A. O. Wetherbee, W. I. Kennard, Directors.

In the inter-club team matches the Union won first place, as follows: —

Nov. 11, 1899, Union won over Harvard with a score of 13-7; Dec. 2, 1899, Union won over Boston Press Club with a score of 4-2; Dec. 16, 1899, Union won over Somerville with a score of 5-1.

In other similar contests the Union has also been uniformly successful, having won every match it has played. The largest affair of this kind occurred on Washington's Birthday (Feb. 22, 1900), when the Union and Technology Chess Clubs played a Telegraphic Chess Match, with seventeen men on a side, against the Yale and New Haven Chess Clubs of New Haven, Conn., and won by a score of  $10\frac{1}{2}$  to  $6\frac{1}{2}$ .

A large number of the chess players from Boston and vicinity were present, this match being noteworthy as the largest of its kind ever played by telegraph, and was also the first telegraphic chess match ever won by a Boston team.

The club desires to express its gratitude for the many courtesies shown by President Baldwin, by Curator Bronsdon, and by others interested in this match, which rendered it a possibility and a success.

Gifts. The Committee gratefully acknowledges the receipt of gifts during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRY H. SPRAGUE, Chairman.

Committee on Members.

When a man repeats an action, depending solely upon his own will, it may be assumed that he has derived either pleasure or profit, or both, from its performance.

Therefore, we rejoice that the eighteen hundred and sixty-nine (1,869) men who renewed their membership, four of whom became Life Members, have found something to attract them again to the Young Men's Christian Union.

It is also possible that they may have induced many of the sixteen hundred and one (1,601) other young men to join, for we find that number of new names upon the roll.

There are three (3) new subscription members, and eleven (11) subscription renewals; and, of these, three have made themselves Life Members.

There are forty-nine (49) new Life Members. So the record for the year 1899-1900 stands:—

New members . . . . .	1,601
Renewals, eighteen hundred and sixty-nine (1,869), less four (4) who became Life Members . . . . .	1,865

Total Membership, March 31, 1900 . . . . .		5,554

Life Members. Thirty-two (32) of those friends whose active interest and friendly counsel encouraged the work which is carried on here have been removed by death from our Life Membership list. Their loss we lament and their friendship we shall miss, though their influence still remains.

Many business men and others have provided special donations, and their young friends have accepted the privilege of becoming Life Members.

On April 1, 1900, there were two thousand and seventy-seven (2,077) Life Members; and the names of six hundred and sixty-two (662) now deceased (marked *) appear in the following list.

Upon payment of twenty-five dollars ($25) each new member will receive a membership card and a neatly framed Life Member's certificate.

It is desired that information of the decease of Life Members whose names are not so marked should be sent to the President, William H. Baldwin, 48 Boylston Street.

For full list of Life Members to April 1, 1900, see the following pages.

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

CORNER OF PARLOR, "WATERSTON COLLECTION."

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.

This important department of our Christian Union work has been carried on during the past season with conscientious devotion on the part of our workers, with generous support from our donors, and with the cordial appreciation of our beneficiaries.

Our three special enterprises have been operated with vigor and success.

First in prominence is the “Country Week,” and the statistics of its twenty-fifth season are as follows :

Number of children sent into the country . . . . .	2,778
Number of adults sent into the country . . . . .	289
Total . . . . .	3,067
Cash on hand April 1, 1899 . . . . .	$1,052.42
Receipts . . . . .	16,186.48
	$17,238.90
Expenses . . . . .	16,708.78
Balance March 31, 1900 . . . . .	$530.12

A quarter of a century has so well established this work in our city that no elaborate explanation of its details is called for.

Briefly stated, it provides summer vacations in the country for some of our less fortunate friends, giving many children and a few mothers a taste of country joys not otherwise available to them. It brings health to many pining little ones and rest and refreshing to many weary hearts.

With increased contributions the work may be much extended, and it is hoped that they may be received.

A special report of the Country Week, containing many interesting and attractive features, may be had on application at the Union office.

The enterprise owes much of its success to the faithful service of a special committee, whose names are here given.

Rides for Invalids.

About twenty-five years ago some generous heart was moved with compassion for those invalids and "shut-ins" who could afford no outings, and this beautiful work was inaugurated.

It has ever since continued in charge of the Christian Union, and is believed to be the only enterprise of its kind in the city.

It provides for our invalid friends carriage, car, and boat rides, furnishing transportation to and from the hospitals, occasional school conveyance for crippled children, and park, country, and harbor excursions. Though designed especially for invalids, it extends its benefits to many little children and weary mothers, and thus seconds the work of the "Country Week" and kindred undertakings.

Naturally, the chief demand for this service is in the summer ; but it is in operation through the entire year. Statistics for the year follow, with a list of the institutions which have assisted in distributing these privileges.

Carriage orders . . . . .	1,660
Harbor tickets . . . . .	1,060
Electric car tickets . . . . .	9,211

Christmas Festival. The Twenty-seventh "Christmas and New Year's Festival for Poor Children" was celebrated most joyously in The Union Hall on Saturday afternoon, December 30, 1899.

About six hundred and fifty children were present (all that the hall could hold), and they had "a real good time."

It began with one of President Baldwin's cordial welcomings, which was followed by an amusing pantomime performance by "The Partellos." This made rare fun for the children, and put them in a proper spirit for the reception of Santa Claus, who next appeared in the person of Mr. Samuel Oliver, making things very merry for the little ones.

One of the most delightful features of these entertainments is the singing of the children. Led by the cornet, they gave vigorous renderings of the "Star-spangled Banner," "Marching through Georgia," "Hot Time," and other musical familiarities.

The collation followed; and an able corps of young men and maidens were kept very busy for a while in their efforts to supply six hundred and fifty open mouths with sandwiches, cake, ice-cream, etc.

When all had finally been served, the children gave, as a kind of "grace after meat," "America." Then they filed slowly out of the hall, each receiving from Santa Claus, in passing, a box of candy.

In Norcross Hall another lively scene was by this time under way. Here the children had left their outer garments, and here they were again cloaked for the return home by friendly hands.

The climax of the whole affair was found in a generous package of useful and carefully selected articles (clothing, shoes, books, toys, etc.), which was handed to every child on leaving.

Music for the occasion was furnished by The Union Orchestra.

The following is the Financial Statement; and, besides the contributions of money here indicated, many valuable donations of garments, material, books, toys, etc., were received from considerate friends.

Balance April 1, 1899 . . . . .	$180.61
Receipts . . . . .	1,739.75
	$1,920.36
Expenditures . . . . .	1,719.32
	$201.04
Balance March 31, 1900 . . . . .	$201.04

The great work of preparation was carried through by a faithful and enthusiastic Committee whose names follow : —

The Thanksgiving Dinner.

On the 30th of November the Union celebrated its thirty-first Thanksgiving Dinner. The Union Hall was filled with tables, the tables were filled with eatables, and the chairs alongside were filled with a happy and hungry crowd of young men who did full justice to the feast.

President Baldwin was the toastmaster, and speeches were made by Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., Rev. Edward A. Horton, Mr. Isaac Fisher (assistant to Booker T. Washington), Col. Frank L. Locke, George W. R. Harriman, Herbert C. Bronsdon, Richard Ray, Jr., and several others. Music was furnished by The Union Orchestra and the Tuskegee Male Quartette.

Letters were read from Governor Wolcott, Secretary Long, Rev. Robert Collyer, and other friends of the Union. Generous supplies for the table were furnished by various hotels and business firms, and voluntary gifts of money from several friends; and the grand result was a most joyous and memorable one.

Employment Bureau.

The Employment Bureau has continued its important work under Mr. H. C. Bronsdon's judicious management, and has proved of value to both employers and employees.

Its privileges are not limited to Union members, and no charge is made for its services. Its record for the past year is as follows:—

Applications for employment . . . . .	629
“ “ employees . . . . .	250
Sent to places . . . . .	247
Places filled . . . . .	244

Clothing. The distribution of clothing is also a Union specialty, and the donations of generous friends have enabled Mr. Bronsdon to supply the needs of a number of worthy young men who might otherwise have suffered.

Board and Lodging. Board and lodging lists, carefully revised, are kept at the Union office, and may be consulted by any one at any time. They are often referred to, and have proved valuable to those seeking for either city or country homes.

The Sick. The care of the sick is also a feature of our work, and information is asked of any cases requiring attention.

As in previous years, Miss E. S. Johnson has been in especial charge of our "Country Week" and "Rides for Invalids," and has rendered much valuable assistance in other branches of our work. We are also indebted to many other helpers whose free and devoted services have become indispensable in our work, and perhaps most of all to the generous friends who supply the money that pays for what we try to do.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.

Public Religious Services.

The Boston Young Men's Christian Union from its organization, now nearly a half of a century ago (in 1851), has always recognized the importance of the religious, moral, social, and physical elements,—these all combined in sound and decided proportions to help give to the young man a strong character, and thus fit him for a noble manhood, fully prepared to meet the varied experiences of life as they are presented to him.

Divine Laws.

To the young man we would say: It pays in every sense of the word to possess a high-toned moral and religious character. God has established moral and physical laws, laws which must be obeyed if we would have moral and physical health.

This great American nation stands firm and strong to-day because of the sure foundation upon which it was begun by our fathers in 1620.

With a positive belief in God, in his providential care of his children, they cherished a confident belief in the growth and permanence of this country, and determined, first of all, to establish the Christian Church, that the great future should be built upon an imperishable foundation.

For the healthy life and true success of the Christian Church of the future, the interest and hearty co-operation of the young men of our day must be secured.

Young people can be of great help and value in the Christian Church, and derive a lasting benefit for themselves as well as giving life and healthy vitality to the Church in their youth.

We should do all in our power to make the Christian church attractive to the young, and to help influence them to take an active part in all that pertains to its interests and success. We should aim to educate the young to inwardly cherish the same spirit which filled the heart of the old prophet when he gave to the world that cheering and beautiful thought,—

“I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.”

Public religious services have been held regularly in The Union Hall on Sunday evenings during the year just closed, with the exception of the hot months of July and August, when it was deemed advisable to omit them.

They have been conducted, as heretofore, by clergymen and laymen of the different religious denominations, and in the attendance and interest manifested have not been exceeded by those of any former years.

We here take occasion to express our gratitude and thanks to the clergy and laity of the different religious denominations for their kind services rendered, and also to those musical friends who have, during the past year, favored the Union by taking part in the services.

By many young people, especially those who are away from their homes, in the country or elsewhere, and residing in this city, the Rooms of the Christian Union are regarded as a home.

The regular Sunday evening services are highly valued and appreciated by many young people, and by others, as the public, both ladies and gentlemen, are always cordially invited.

Vesper Cards have been issued each month, giving the names of speakers, with their subjects, music, and other information, which have been freely distributed to members and friends of the Union.

Your Committee are always happy to provide members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to attend, free or at a moderate expense, and render such other services as are in its power.

Summer List of Clergymen.

As for several years past, a public invitation was extended to the clergymen of the different religious denominations who were to be in Boston or vicinity during the summer vacation season to send or leave their addresses with the President of the Union.

A full list was carefully prepared, which was freely consulted, and proved to be of great convenience to many persons who had occasion to desire the services of a clergyman during that time.

The following-named clergymen and laymen have conducted services from April 1, 1899, to April 1, 1900:—

COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.

THE GYMNASIUM.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Union Gymnasium.

BICYCLE RACING MACHINE.

The Committee on Physical Culture is glad to report that the Union Gymnasium is in a most flourishing condition. During the past year the attendance has steadily increased, the total number of members on April first being nearly 1,000, or 984 in exact figures.

This demonstrates beyond question the popularity of a gymnasium which is conducted on scientific and hygienic principles, and which is equipped with all the latest devices and improved apparatus which careful observation and study have suggested to those having in mind the rational physical training of men of all ages and conditions. The gymnasium of to-day is the natural outgrowth of that of the past, which graduated for the most part the athlete or acrobat, while modern physical training caters in a safe and sensible way to the physical needs and sound development of the business man, the professional man, and the school-boy.

In consequence of the recent expansion both of our membership and our apparatus, additional floor space has become imperative; and during the year a handsome new gallery has been constructed at the easterly end of the Gymnasium, not only affording ample space for new apparatus, but greatly improving the general appearance of the room.

Contributing to the popularity of physical training in the Union Gymnasium is the class-work.

A GENERAL BATH-ROOM.

Class Work.

This important feature was almost unknown a generation ago; but it is now recognized as a primary factor in body building, and has come to stay. It is no unusual spectacle to see a class of from eighty to one hundred young men going through the class drills to an inspiring musical accompaniment. The classes are divided into the following:

free movement, dumb-bell, Indian club, high bars, parallel bars, German horse, vaulting and tumbling. The instructors and leaders are : Superintendent German F. Hoffman, Assistant Superintendent Everett F. Parks, and Messrs. Charles B. Sanborn, John A. Dykeman, Augustus F. Cunio, and Walter S. Robbins. Special Classes for Boys are held every Saturday morning through the season.

The music for the class-work remains in charge of our pianist, Mr. Lyle C. True, whose reliability and familiarity with the special requirements of this position lend largely to the success of these drills.

In consequence of the remarkable growth in popularity of the game of hand-ball, and in response to the urgent request of our members, a handsome new Hand-ball Court has been added, built according to the latest designs, of solid white marble ; and it is the daily scene of many a friendly competition between the enthusiastic devotees of this novel and healthful sport.

The addition of a Bicycle Room, with a special entrance from the street, has proved to be a happy innovation, affording, as it does, the opportunity for the free checking of wheels,—a privilege enjoyed by members of the Gymnasium and Union alike.

Among the important features of the gymnasium are the bathing facilities. Our Bath-rooms, both general and private, are models of construction and cleanliness, being under constant supervision by a special attendant. They are thoroughly equipped with the latest appliances in this line, which make hot and cold water bathing delightful and invigorating.

BICYCLE ROOM AND DEVELOPING APPARATUS.

Dressing Rooms. The Dressing-rooms contain 1,276 lockers, and two private dressing-rooms meet the special needs of many of our patrons.

Lighting. The lighting of the Gymnasium by the arc and incandescent systems has resulted in a great improvement both in illumination and ventilation.

Exhibition. One exhibition was given during the year to the largest audience ever assembled in the Gymnasium, the programme consisting of attractive features which gave practical illustration of the advancement and proficiency of the members. The Superintendent, Mr. Hoffman, and his Assistant, Mr. Parks, have been untiring in their efforts to keep the Gymnasium work up to the modern standard; and they have offered many valuable suggestions to the Committee, which have, as far as possible, been carried out.

INDIVIDUAL BATH-ROOM.

Physical Examinations.

Special attention is called to the opportunity extended all Gymnasium members for a free physical examination by our Medical Director, Dr. John W. Bartol.

When a young man joins a gymnasium, he should be guided so as to exercise intelligently,—i.e., his exercising should be adapted to his individual needs. This examination is entirely optional, but by far the larger percentage of our members avail themselves of this professional advice; and at the end of the term they are re-examined, to ascertain exactly what progress they have made.

The report of our Medical Director, Dr. John W. Bartol, is herewith appended in full.

NEW GYMNASIUM GALLERY.

REPORT OF DR. JOHN W. BARTOL

(HARVARD), MEDICAL DIRECTOR.

MR. WALTER H. DUGAN, Chairman of Committee on Physical Culture :

Dear Sir,—The work of the Medical Director's office for the past year has maintained its usual record. The number of applicants for physical examination continues to bear quite a constant ratio to the membership, new and old. Thus we have made up to date 380 examinations, including those coming for second and third times.

While the first examination serves to detect in many instances some especial lack of development, or organic weakness for which warning advice is needed, re-examinations are of great interest to the applicants as a measure of their improvement and often as a stimulus to further effort.

The well-hardened gymnast, of course, is aware of the state of his development, and wants no check on the character of his exercise ; but for the beginner and those constitutionally weak the supervision of the Superintendent and his assistants bears out most admirably the original directions.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN W. BARTOL.

BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION.

48 BOYLSTON STREET.

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THIS SOCIETY.

---

1851. The Boston Young Men's Christian Union was instituted in 1851, and incorporated under its present name in 1852.

Sept. 17, 1851, nearly fifty years ago, the foundation of this society was laid.

After a successful existence of twelve years its work was temporarily discontinued, in consequence of the interruption caused by the Civil War.

---

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE VI.

"Duties of the Board of Directors.

"It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

"First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

"Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

"Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

"Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life."

REORGANIZATION, APRIL 15, 1868.

The work was resumed again in 1868 under its present auspices, and rooms were provided at No. 12 West Street. These soon proving too small for the purposes of the society, larger ones were taken 1868. in the fall of 1868 at what was then 300 Washington Street, corner of Suffolk Place, where the whole building above the first floor was eventually occupied.

These premises also proving inadequate, it became necessary again to move and enlarge the accommodations. A suitable lot of land having been found, a public appeal was made in the spring of 1874 for funds with which to purchase the land and erect a building for the society. By the generosity of its friends the necessary amount with which to begin the work was speedily secured.

NEW BUILDING.

The corner-stone of the new building was laid at noon of Sept. 16, 1875, in the presence of members of 1875. the Trustees and of the Board of Government, and of a large number of interested friends.

COMPLETION AND DEDICATION.

The present building was completed and dedicated to the use of the Union March 15, 1876. By the munificent legacy of eighty thousand dollars 1876. from the late Joseph B. Eaton, a Life Member, supplemented by the generous gifts of many friends, the society was enabled in 1879 (December 10) to hold its building free from all indebtedness.

The enlarged facilities not only increased the power of the Union in various fields of benevolent work at home and abroad, but the greatly augmented membership tested the building to its utmost capacity.

ENLARGEMENT AND REDEDICATION.

In 1882, on account of the constantly increasing membership of the Union and the growing and pressing need of still larger accommodations, the society 1883. found that the building was still not spacious enough, and an enlargement was deemed necessary. An appeal was made to its numerous friends, who promptly responded; and the addition to the building was made and dedicated May 28, 1883.

The extension has a frontage of seventy-two feet on Boylston Square, so that now the Union Building has light from all four sides, and covers over eleven thousand feet.

Aims and Objects.

The chief aim of the officers of the society is to make the Rooms, to as great an extent as possible, a home for young men ; to offer every possible attraction in the shape of books, papers, games, pleasant companions, classes, public religious services, lectures, amateur and musical entertainments, and other means of instruction and recreation.

Without losing sight of its special work, the Union has always been ready to discharge its duty to the community by such general benevolent work as may come within its scope.

In this branch of outside work the officers have been greatly assisted by members, and committees of ladies who have labored indefatigably and successfully. Among these special objects may be mentioned the "Christmas and New Year's Festival for Needy Children," the "Rides for Invalids," and "Country Week" for poor children.

In addition to these are the occasions when, at times of disaster abroad, the Rooms have been made a depot for the receipt of contributions, and a source for the distribution of relief.

Central Location.

The building is very centrally located, being situated on Boylston Street, corner of Tamworth Street, near Tremont Street, overlooking the Common, and has also a frontage on Boylston Square, with an entrance opposite Washington Street.

It is open to light and air on every side, near the entrance to the subway, corner of Boylston and Tremont Streets, and nearly all the various lines of electric cars either pass the door or near by, on Tremont and Washington Streets.

Reception Room
Office.

The Reception Room is at the head of the first flight of stairs from Boylston Street, with side windows opening upon Tamworth Street, formerly called Lowell Place. The members and all other persons visiting the Union enter here, and from this room pass to the other portions of the building occupied by the society.

It contains the desk of the Curator, Librarian, and Book-keeper, and facilities for checking the garments of members. It is also supplied with tables for checkers and dominos (for use after five o'clock P.M.), an aquarium, a case containing a nearly complete collection of the birds of New England, and the leading Boston daily newspapers on file.

The business of the society is here transacted, strangers and others desiring information are received, and such attentions are afforded as are in the power of the Union to furnish.

It is estimated that in the more active season (October to May) from 1,600 to 2,200 young men and others visit the Union Rooms daily.

This room is open every day, including Sundays, from eight o'clock A.M. to ten o'clock P.M.

The Sitting Room.

The Union Sitting Room, connected with this room, fronts on Boylston Street, and commands a fine view of the Common. It is pleasantly furnished, has a piano, and is intended to be a social room for members. It has a cabinet containing minerals, insects, etc.

Chess Room.

Adjoining the Sitting Room is the Chess Room, especially devoted to chess-playing, and open to members after two o'clock P.M.

An additional room for chess has also been provided (Room No. 1).

President and ## Directors' Room.

The President and Directors' Room, connected with the Reception Room in the rear, is used for the business purposes of the society. It commands a view of the entire floor.

The Library.

The Library and Reading Room is in the L, and is also connected with the Reception Room. It is lighted with windows on three sides, and is furnished with a library of over fifteen thousand volumes, with the leading magazines, religious papers of all denominations, illustrated, weekly, and daily papers.

The Library Room has a capacity for from forty thousand to fifty thousand volumes, and is the largest reading-room in Boston, with the exception of the new Public Library, being one hundred and twelve feet long, and having five thousand feet of floor space.

Members can at all times take books from the shelves and read them in the room, the Library thus becoming so attractive that many are induced to spend their time in reading who would not do so unless the books were placed, as it were, in their hands. Books can also be taken for home reading upon application at the Librarian's desk.

Correspondence.

Facilities for correspondence are furnished to members, in connection with the Library.

The Study.

The Union Study, opening from the Library, is supplied with books of reference, accessible to members at all times.

Toilet Rooms. The Toilet Room, with bathing-rooms attached, is down a rear flight of stairs from the Reception Room.

The Gymnasium. The Gymnasium, another flight below, on the ground floor, is spacious, and lighted on every side.

The improvements in 1883 added nearly three thousand feet of floor space, so that it is now one of the largest and the most complete gymnasiums in the country.

It is 136 feet in length, and covers 6,200 superficial feet, exclusive of dressing-rooms, or, in all, over 10,000 feet.

It is provided with bath-rooms, large dressing-rooms, and is furnished with a great variety of modern apparatus of the most approved patterns.

Dressing boxes are free; and the members are entitled to the use of the shower, sponge, douche, needle, and tub baths, which are provided with hot and cold water.

The Hand-ball Court, in the Gymnasium, has a new, smoothly finished marble wall especially adapted to this game. Instruction is afforded to members by German F. Hoffman, Superintendent, Everett F. Parks, Assistant Superintendent, John W. Bartol, M.D., as Medical Director, and Augustus F. Cunio, Walter S. Robbins, Charles B. Sanborn, John A. Dykeman, Special Instructors.

Terms. Members of the Union become entitled, by the payment of seven dollars per year, to the use of the Gymnasium at all times when open.

Four dollars per year entitle them to its use after seven o'clock P.M.

THE UNION HALL, FROM STAGE.

Bicycle-check Room. A Bicycle-check Room, with an entrance on Lowell Court, has been opened for the Free use of members of the Union.

Committee and Class Rooms. Committee Rooms connect with the Parlor and each other by wide doors, and are used, as well as other smaller rooms, as occasion requires.

Five large and three small Class Rooms were gained by the addition to the building in 1883.

The Union Hall. The Union Hall is reached by two easy flights from Boylston Street, as well as by a spiral staircase from the Reception Room, and has an exit on Boylston Square. It is furnished with folding seats, neatly upholstered in leather, and is capable, with the gallery, of seating five hundred and two people.

There is a ticket office on the street floor, which may be used in connection with this hall, when desired.

The Stage. The stage, which was enlarged and improved in 1883, is thirty-six feet wide and thirty-nine feet deep, with a proscenium twenty-one feet, and is the largest private stage in the city.

The Union Hall is admirably adapted for concerts, lectures, and dramatic performances, for which it is provided with new and appropriate scenery. It is thoroughly ventilated, and has the incandescent system of electric lighting. Connected with the stage are large and convenient anterooms and dressing-rooms, with a separate entrance from Boylston Square.

The hall is used for religious services, lectures, entertainments, and other public purposes of the society, and is also let for similar purposes, when not used by the Union.

ROOMS FOR GAMES.

Eaton Hall. Eaton Hall is connected with The Union Hall by double folding doors, so that the two halls may be used together, if desired ; and it is also used for the ordinary purposes of the society. It will seat about one hundred persons. This hall was named Eaton Hall in memory of the late Joseph B. Eaton.

Norcross Hall. Norcross Hall, which was gained by the addition to the building, is lighted with windows opening on Boylston Square. It has a large stage and anteroom, and has a seating capacity of two hundred and seventy-five. This hall was named Norcross Hall in memory of the late Hon. Otis Norcross.

The Parlor. The Union Parlor, reached from the Reception Room by the spiral staircase or by the main stairway, is in front, with a view of the Common. This cheerful and attractive homelike room contains a piano, magalethoscope, pictures, etc., and furnished with appropriate fittings, and open to the members from 7.30 to 9.45 o'clock each evening, except Sunday. (The Sitting Room is open at all times.)

The Waterston Collection. A choice collection of books,—over 500 volumes, “The Waterston Collection,”—also a large number of stereoscopic views, foreign and American, have been placed in the Parlor for the use of members.

Many of the members avail themselves of the social use of the Parlor, and find in it the comforts of a home ; and it is earnestly hoped that many more will do so.

The Members' Receptions are held here, the room also being used for other purposes by the society.

Rooms for Games. Two small rooms connected with the Parlor.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES, CLASSES, ETC.

To promote further the objects of the society, public religious services are held every Sunday evening in The Union Hall except during July and August.

Evening Classes. Classes are formed for the study of German, French, Spanish, Italian, Book-keeping, Penmanship, Elocution, Arithmetic, English Grammar, English Literature, Mechanical Drawing, Freehand Drawing, Decoration and Design, Industrial Electricity, Shorthand, Latin, Law, and other branches.

Practical Talks on matters of Science, Political Economy, History, English Language, Banking, Hygiene, and Art are given; also Essays in Ethics, and frequent Lectures, Readings, Amateur Dramatic, Musical, and other entertainments.

BENEVOLENT AND CHARITABLE WORK.

Benevolent Work. Under the supervision of the Committee on Benevolent Action, benevolent and charitable work is carried on in various departments.

The Employment Bureau aids members, and others, in getting employment. All persons who can furnish employment, or who know of vacancies to be filled, confer a great favor by communicating with this Bureau.

The Boarding House Department endeavors to provide good boarding-places, at a moderate price, for those desiring them.

A Committee on Churches provides members with seats in any church of the city which they desire to at- tend, free or at a moderate expense, and renders such other services as are in its power.

A Committee on Clothing attends to the distribution of clothing, given for the purpose, to worthy young men needing such assistance.

A Committee visits and cares for members when sick.

Benevolent and charitable work of various kinds is carried on by committees of members of the Union and the Ladies' Committee.

A Committee on the "Country Week" sends poor children into the country for vacations of ten days or a fortnight.

The "Invalid Rides" Department furnishes carriages for drives in the suburbs, to convalescents, in the hospitals and elsewhere.

Invitation. Young Men, without regard to their religious belief or associations, are cordially invited to become members of the society, and to co-operate in the accomplishment of its purposes.

Fees. The fee for Annual Membership is ONE DOLLAR; for Subscription Membership, FIVE DOLLARS; for Life Membership, TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS. A subscription membership for five successive years constitutes a life membership.

All persons interested in the success of the society, who are willing to aid it by contributions, professional services as teachers, by engaging in its charitable and benevolent work, or in any other way, will confer a favor by communicating with any of its officers or committees, or proffering their assistance at the Rooms.

OF THE

Boston Young Men's Christian Union.

---

ARTICLE I.

Title.

THIS Society shall be called the "BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION."

ARTICLE II.

Eligibility of Members.

All young men of good moral character, and claiming to believe in the truths of Christianity, without distinction of sect or party, shall be eligible as members of this Society; but no person shall vote at any meeting of the Society who has not been a member for the period of one year, at least, previous to such meeting.

ARTICLE III.

Admission of Members.

Members may be admitted in such manner and on such conditions as the Board of Government may prescribe.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual, Subscription, and Life Members.

All persons qualified as before named, who shall be admitted in the manner herein provided, shall, upon the payment of one dollar annually, become and continue MEMBERS of this Society; upon the payment of five dollars, or more annually, shall become and continue SUBSCRIPTION MEMBERS; and all persons so qualified and admitted, who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars in five or less annual instalments, shall become LIFE MEMBERS of the Society.

ARTICLE V.

Officers.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Board of twelve Directors, who shall be elected by ballot from members of the Society, and shall constitute the Board of Government. At the annual meeting in the year 1898, four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years; four directors, each to serve two years; and four directors, each to serve one year; and at each annual meeting thereafter four directors shall be elected, each to serve three years.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Government shall have power to appoint, subject to their direction, such other officers and committees from among the members as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII.

Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April; and other regular meetings shall be held on the second Wednesdays of July, October, and January. The Board of Directors may call other meetings of the Society from time to time; and they shall call such meetings whenever requested so to do by the written application of any seventeen members, stating the purposes for which such meeting is to be held; said meetings to be called in such manner as the said Board may deem expedient, having previously given reasonable notice thereof. Seventeen members shall constitute a quorum of the Society for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII.

Permanent Fund.

The Board of Directors may transfer such of the funds of the Society as they may think best to a Permanent Fund, may appoint five trustees to control such fund, and shall at the time of such appointment determine the character of the trust by an instrument in writing. Vacancies occurring at any time hereafter in the number of said trustees shall be filled by the remaining members, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors for the time being.

ARTICLE IX.

Amendments.

These articles may be added to, altered, or amended at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, provided that such additions, alterations, or amendments shall have been proposed in writing at one meeting, at least, prior to that at which they are to be acted upon.

BY-LAWS
OF THE
BOARD OF GOVERNMENT.

---

ARTICLE I.

Meetings.

REGULAR meetings of the Board of Government shall be held on the first Monday of each month. Special meetings may be called at any time, by order of the President, Secretary, or any two Directors. The Secretary shall notify members of the time and place of such meetings.

ARTICLE II.

Standing Committees.

At the first meeting of the Board in each year, eight standing committees shall be appointed by the President, who shall be under the authority and subject to the direction of the whole Board; and the reports of the various committees shall be first in order at each regular meeting of the Board. The committees may appoint, subject to the approval and ratification of the Board, such sub-committees from among the members of the Society as they shall deem fit, provided, however, that each sub-committee shall be subject in its action to the committee of the Board to which it is subordinate. The eight committees shall be constituted as follows:—

1. COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.—They shall have charge of the financial affairs of the Society, and shall, with the Treasurer, devise ways and means for procuring funds, obtaining donations and assessments, investing the same, and superintending all disbursements. They shall audit the report of the Treasurer before it is submitted to the Union at the annual meetings.

2. COMMITTEE ON LECTURES, CLASSES, AND ENTERTAINMENTS.— They may provide for courses of lectures or single lectures; shall organize and have supervision of all clubs and classes formed for instruction or discussion, except classes for religious study and discussion; and shall have general supervision of all entertainments, both public and private.

3. COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.— They shall have the general charge of all matters connected with this department. They shall purchase such books for the Library and Study, and obtain such newspapers and other periodicals as they deem expedient.

4. COMMITTEE ON ROOMS.— They shall have the general charge of the rooms, and shall take especial pains to introduce strangers visiting the city.

5. COMMITTEE ON MEMBERS.— They shall organize means for increasing the membership of the Society, and shall have the general supervision of the admission of new members.

6. COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENT ACTION.— They shall organize means for providing strangers, and others in want, with employment, with good boarding-houses, with seats in churches, and shall have the general supervision of all works of benevolence and reform undertaken by the Union.

7. COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC WORSHIP AND RELIGIOUS STUDY.— They shall have charge of all measures for public religious worship undertaken by the Union, either within or outside of the rooms of the Society, and shall have the supervision of all classes formed for religious study and discussion.

8. COMMITTEE ON PHYSICAL CULTURE.—They shall have the general charge of the gymnasium and athletic sports, and other measures for promoting the health of the members.

ARTICLE III.

Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall present to the Board a Monthly Report showing the condition of the finances. No money shall be paid by him except by the authority of the Board, or approval in writing of some member of the committee under whose direction the expenditures were incurred.

ARTICLE IV.

Annual Report.

The Board shall present, at the annual meeting of the Society, a detailed statement of the condition of the institution and of its operations during the preceding year.

ARTICLE V.

Reports of Committees.

It shall be the duty of all committees to keep a detailed account of their proceedings, and at the end of the year to place the same, with the reports of their sub-committees, in the hands of the Secretary of the Society.

ARTICLE VI.

Amendments to By-Laws.

The foregoing By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board, providing two-thirds of the members present assent thereto; but no alteration, addition, or amendment shall be adopted at the same meeting at which it is proposed.

The President, Secretary, and Treasurer, ex officio, shall have the supervision of all printing and advertising.
